INTERSECT

(ĭn'ter-sĕkt') –To cut across; to overlap each other

That's the goal of the word of God: to cut across and overlap into our everyday lives. These questions will help us: DISCUSS God's word, DECIDE in faith how to respond to his truth, and DO in love what he has called us to do.

REWIND

❶ From last week's teaching, how have you been able to grow this week in holding on to God's promises, heeding God's warnings or following God's instructions?

DISCUSS

❷ What either encouraged, challenged, or motivated you the most from this weekend's teaching or worship?

From the Temecula Campus

We talked about we can duck and dodge God when he confronts us. How have you seen people (maybe even yourself) do this?

From the Oak Mountain (Crosspoint in the Vines) Campus

We looked at three key ways we can take a wrong turn from God. How have you seen this happen in your life or other people's lives?

❸ How do these verses shape the way we should view authentic repentance?

Isaiah 8:11–14

Psalms 32:1–5

Matthew 21:28–32

DECIDE & DO

❹ What is one verse or passage from the note sheet or Intersect that you could use this week to either memorize or recite each day to keep you focused in your faith?

What are the top 2–3 ways you could apply the message to your life this week that would make a big difference in your relationship with God or other people?
