INTERSECT

(in'ter-sēkt') –To cut across; to overlap each other

That's the goal of the word of God: to cut across and overlap into our everyday lives. Use these questions to help you dig deeper and personally apply what you're learning. We also use these questions as a framework for discussion in our small groups.

REWIND

❶ Last week, we talked about the importance of being able to hear, listen, know, and follow Christ. Which of these 4 areas did you struggle with this past week? Which area do you feel that you grew in?

DISCUSS

❷ Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, what caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

❸ If you have already discovered Jesus and have made a decision to trust in him, write a list of the ways your thoughts and behaviors have changed because of knowing and following him.

❹ This week, we read three large claims that Jesus made about himself. Read through the following verses and think about what else the Bible has to say about who Jesus is.

John 6:12

Colossians 1:15–23

Hebrews 1

DECIDE & DO

❺ If Jesus is who he says he is, what are you going to do to pursue after him this week?

If Jesus is who he says he is, what thought or behaviors do you still need to work on, change, or surrender over to him?

If Jesus is who he says he is, how are you going to praise, worship, and make much of him this week?
