Any special skills or talents that might be helpful? _____

There are plenty of things you can do, but

PLEASE DO NOT DO THE FOLLOWING:

Leave the room. Once you arrive, stay until the last kid from your service leaves.

Bring your own food in the room. We have lots of kiddos with food allergies, and we don't want to risk them getting anything they shouldn't have. Plus, it's just bad manners to eat in front of other people, even if it is kids.

Use your phone. You are an important part of the team. Texting does not help the kids or other volunteers in the room, so don't do it.

Check kids in or out. Only adult volunteers in the room should do this.

Roughhouse with the kids. Swinging kids by their arms, legs, ears or any other appendages.

Be alone with a kid. You should always be in the room with at least one other volunteer. Do not take a kid alone to the bathroom, or anywhere else.

WHAT AM I COMMITTING TO?

Time commitment varies depending on the serving role you chose.

The majority of weekend volunteers serve a two weekend on, four weekend off rotation. Volunteers arrive 35 minutes before the service starts to prep for the class time. Also, all volunteers should attend a service in the auditorium. Serving should not take the place of a weekend service but be an addition to it.

We're all in different places in our journey. And that's okay. But we ask that those volunteers who serve in Kindergarten through 6th grade be Christ-followers.

KIDZLIFE EXPECTATIONS

Before the Weekend:

Confirm with your weekend coordinator that you will be serving, and then make plans to show up. Plans would include: arrange transportation, say no to last-minute overnight invitations that would conflict with your serving commitment, and check your calendar for potential conflicts.

If working with Preschool or older, read the lesson before the weekend. Your coordinator will include the lesson in your weekly reminder

Brush your teeth before you come. Kids are honest and will tell you if your breath stinks.

On The Weekend:

Be in the room ready to go, with name tag on, at least 25 minutes prior to service.

Attend a service with your age group or the main service in addition to serving in KidzLife.

Play with a kid- build towers with blocks, color, make animals out of Play-Doh.

Help kids clean up their stuff. Make it fun. Tell them to each pick up 10 items, or act like a robot while picking up or come up with your own creative idea to engage them in clean up.

Model to the kids what it looks like to participate in Big Group. Sit with the kids and do everything the Big Group Presenter asks the kids to do. If you have fun, your kids will, too!

PARENT/GUARDIAN COMMITMENT

I understand that my child has committed to serve on the KidzLife team. So that I can help make this a fantastic volunteer experience for my son or daughter, I commit to:

Assisting my child in getting to KidzLife when he or she needs to be there.

Help my child sign up to serve.

Encourage my child's spiritual growth by making sure that he or she is also attending a KidzLife, Student Ministries, or Main Church service in addition to serving.

Reviewing this application packet and the expectations.
