INTERSECT

(in'ter-sĕkt') –To cut across; to overlap each other

That's the goal of the word of God: to cut across and overlap into our everyday lives. Use these questions to help you dig deeper and personally apply what you're learning.

REWIND

❶ From this past weekend's teaching, what stood out to you? Any questions/disagreements? What did you find most useful/helpful?

❷ This weekend, we talked about some very unreliable, even strange ways people think God guides/speaks to them. What are some other strange ways you've seen people use to get guidance from God?

We also talked about reliable ways God will speak to us. Which ones have you found most helpful to you?

DISCUSS

❸ We're focusing on just one of the five ways the Holy Spirit will guide us—through the gifts he gives us. Write down what the following verses teach us about spiritual gifts

Romans 12:6–9

1 Peter 4:10–11

What else does the Bible have to say about our gifts and how we are to use them? Use Google, commentaries, favorite books, etc.

DECIDE & DO

❹ My—and your—gifts usually revolve around what I'm passionate about, what I'm good at and what other people have affirmed.

Write down your answers to the following questions:

1. What am I passionate (excited or angry!) about?
2. What am I good at (and not good at)?
3. What have others affirmed?

Go online and take this assessment/test:

sdrock.com/giftstest

Write down the results or bring them back with you. For best results, pray before you begin and don't overthink this. Answer quickly and honestly.

What do you think your top two or three gifts might be?

Think about other people in your small group. What gifts do you see in them?

How is God using your gifts right now?

Where might be some other places he wants to use your gifts to serve and help others?
